Do you remember the last nighttime thunderstorm? Something about storms overnight make me rest so well. I sleep so soundly through a normal overnight thunderstorm. Maybe it is the slight flashes of light that come through the window, or the consistent sound of rain fall on the roof and ground or just the relief of knowing I am not out in it, but I enjoy a good night time rain! In our gospel today we hear about the apostle's boat being tossed by waves as a nighttime wind blows up on the water. The wind and waves unsettled the apostles, waking them up and leading them to pay closer attention to the night sky and the horizon. And they see Jesus walking toward them, and they are 'terrified'! But, what is more terrifying: being out at sea in rising winds at night, or seeing a human form floating across the water toward you? Maybe when the apostles recognize that it's Jesus coming toward them, they thought "Is this the END?" I'm certainly not Jesus, but as a priest, I've heard people joke many times when I showed up to a situation, they said "Father, we might be in a mess, but we didn't think it was that bad-who called you in?" (As if priests only show up at the end-end!) If I could ask the apostles a question, I would ask what exactly 'terrified' them? Perhaps, we can write the terror off to the disorientation of flipping around on the sea at night, half awake and half still dreaming, when suddenly Jesus appears walking on the water. Peter, captain of the ship, takes charge and announces 'If it is you, Jesus, command me to walk with you.' Peter, by saying 'command me', he is revealing who is really in charge of the church-boat! Jesus! And Jesus calls Peter to join Him on the water. Forget the storm for a minute; this nighttime sea-walking invitation by Jesus teaches us a lesson by itself. You've heard 'don't jump out the pan into the fire', well, here is an illustration of what not to do in a hurricane. We should 'batten down the hatches' not 'bail out and swim the swells!' UNLESS, it is Jesus, who calls you to do it and He is with you! Peter floats the first few steps, until he is distracted by the wind and waves, and sinks. (Now part of us should not at all be surprised by Peter's sinking. I find this humorous because Peter's name means: 'Rock', and who has ever seen a 'rock' float? But Peter also has a 'youthful faith' and we see him so often jump into things, only to pull back or hesitate when things toughen and the sacrifice increases. His faith will mature and steady over his life through many more encounters with Jesus. But at this early point in the gospel, Peter is still impulsive. Think of his other quick responses 'I will never deny you' at the Last Supper (Matt 26:35) or like last week's Transfiguration account 'Quick, let's build three tents and lock this experience up' (Matt 17:4). But, Peter's faith will increase and be made rock-firm, and he will become the foundational witness (dying Himself for Christ's Gospel Kingdom) for our following. Jesus tells him in Luke 22:32 "you must strengthen your brothers." So Peter has this learning experience of 'water-walking' to grow and develop stronger faith in Christ. In effect, Jesus tells him, "Keep looking at me; not at anything around us. Don't let the wind, water or waves throw you off your walk with me!" Hearing this reminds me of the construction foreman who told his coworker walking the high steel beam, 'Imagine it is only a two by four laying on the ground; keep your focus on keeping your feet on the wood, don't look around at the air or anything below! I think of 'faith' as 'staying focused' like that! Or as the letter to the Hebrews says "persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus" (Heb 12:1-2). In the boat or in the water, as long as Jesus is with us and we are focused on Him, He will see us through! In our next storm or trial, we have to remember and keep practicing this 'Jesus-focus'! There was once a father of a sick boy who went to Jesus, with some hesitation, and asked Jesus to heal his son 'if he could! Jesus responded like, 'If I could? How about 'If you trust....?' Jesus healed the boy on the spot, and the father replied, "I do believe, help my unbelief!" (Mark 9:24). In our next storm, we can make that our prayer, "Lord, help me through my unbelief, strengthen my trust of you". And don't take our eyes away from Him!

We have a Holy Day of Obligation this coming week: Assumption of the Virgin Mary. Our understanding of the Blessed Mother's passing from this world is that as she shared flesh with our Savior (Jesus being united to Mary as Mother to Son for nine months in the womb), she was blessed with the God-given grace of not undergoing the process of decay in death. As the original 'Temple of the God's Spirit' with Jesus living within her, she continued throughout her earthly time to be the most faithful disciple living with Him. So it is fitting that even in the earliest days of our Church, Mary was understood not to have been buried anywhere on earth, but rather at the moment of her passing, she was taken up into the glory of heaven. If a person wanted to find another example of such 'holy and complete exit' from this world, he/she could refer to the 'taking up of Elijah in the fiery chariot' (2 Kings 2:11) or the 'taking home of Enoch' (Genesis 5:24). Mary, Blessed Ever-Virgin, assumed body and soul into the glory of heaven, pray for us! Our Holy Day Mass schedule is 7:00 am, 12:05 pm and 6:00 pm.

Here are some daily questions to consider in our prayer time!

Sunday: Did God place any word on my heart or thought in my mind, as a call to action this coming week? What do I remember from Mass today?

Monday: Prepare to practice 'focus on Jesus' with any trial or hardship that arises this week!

Tuesday: Have I given God time in prayer and scripture reading today? That increases focus!

Wednesday: All the apostles were in the boat together. Do I value my time being gathered with other followers of Jesus? What can I do to spend more time with believers?

Thursday: Has Jesus asked me to step into 'deep water' with Him lately? How did I do?

Friday: Make a loving sacrifice willingly for someone today without any recognition.

Saturday: I am going to mass tonight or tomorrow, aren't I? Have you been tempted to miss or been caught up in other things that led you to skip or miss before? Pray about it.

Peace and Prayers, Fr Brian Johnson

A Word from Pope Francis:

"The disciples went back down the mountain of Transfiguration with eyes and hearts opened by their encounter with the Lord. The image of the disciples going down Mount Tabor reminds us of the importance of detaching ourselves from worldly things, to see Christ's presence veiled in our daily activities and interactions. When we dedicate ourselves to an attentive and prayerful listening to Christ, by always looking for intimate moments of prayer, we can welcome with docility the word of God in us. This path we take, leads to a more vivid rediscovery of Jesus, not as an end in itself, but as rather something that leads us to go down the mountain and back to others, recharged by God's Spirit. With this renewed strength, we'll be able to take new steps of authentic conversion and constantly bear witness to charity, as a law of daily life. By allowing ourselves to be transformed by the presence of Christ and his Word, we will become concrete signs of love for our brothers and sisters." (Homily 8-06-2017)

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
"Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

What keeps you from following Christ? For many, it is fear. As the disciples experienced fear, Jesus commanded them to take courage. Responding to our vocation takes courage and often challenges us to step out into unknown territory. If we trust in the Lord, He will raise us up and we will join our voices with his disciples who proclaim "Truly, you are the Son of God." If you feel that God might be calling you to the vocation of priesthood, contact the vocations office for resources and support. 270-683-1545, jason.mcclure@pastoral.org, www.owensborovocations.com.

Sunday, Aug 13, 2017 NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Swimming lessons

If you've ever taught someone to swim, or remember what it was like for you when you learned, you'll recall the doubt and fear—and also the realization that swimming is much easier once you let go of the fear, stop fighting the water, and learn to relax and enjoy the experience. Where in your own life do fear and doubt threaten to pull you under, as happened to Peter when he started to walk on water? Try to relax and simply go with the flow.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a; Romans 9:1-5; Matthew 14:22-33 (115) “. . . why did you doubt?”

Monday, Aug 14, 2017 MEMORIAL OF MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, PRIEST, MARTYR A tribute to good

In Jesus' day, people had to pay “tribute”—taxes—to their conqueror, signifying their submission to his greatness. When Maximilian Kolbe (1894-1941) was canonized in 1982, a special person was on hand to pay tribute to his greatness. Yes, John Paul II, a fellow Pole, was there to do the canonizing, but equally special, so was Francis Gajowniczek, the Auschwitz inmate Kolbe died for. As they slaved away in the Nazi death camp, a prisoner escaped. Infuriated guards randomly chose 10 men to die in retaliation. When Gajowniczek cried out that he had a wife and children, Father Kolbe stepped forward to take his place. Kolbe paid tribute to Jesus. What truths do we submit to daily?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 10:12-22; Matthew 17:22-27 (413) “From whom do kings of the earth take tribute? From their children or from others?”

Tuesday, Aug 15, 2017 SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY Lifting up the lowly

A recent study showed the power of a simple compliment. Telling a proficient sales clerk, “My, you're good at your job!” or a co-worker, “I appreciate your thoughtfulness” can greatly alter their mood and improve their performance. One man who had battled daily with his teenage daughter decided to compliment her three times each day. The practice did wonders for their relationship, and it opened his eyes to all the good things she said and did. Today we celebrate the Assumption of Mary, who thanked God for “lifting up the lowly.” We're all lowly and can need a lift. Maybe God is asking you to do some of the lifting, too.

TODAY'S READINGS: Vigil: 1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2; 1 Corinthians 15:54b-57; Luke 11:27-28 (621); Day: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; 1 Corinthians 15:20-27; Luke 1:39-56 (622) “God has brought down the powerful and lifted up the lowly.”

Wednesday, Aug 16, 2017 MEMORIAL OF STEPHEN OF HUNGARY Give from the heart

Saint Stephen of Hungary helped bring Christianity to his nation a thousand years ago and also helped popularize the ancient custom of tithing, the practice of offering a part—traditionally 10 percent—of one's income or resources to a religious organization. While in Stephen's time tithing was imposed as a mandatory obligation, in the early church donations were treated as freewill offerings. One's generosity should not be forced; it needs to come from a willing heart. Open yours and share generously.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 34:1-12; Matthew 18:15-20 (415) “If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone.”

Thursday, Aug 17, 2017 Forgiveness made real

In 1834, the Irish Catholics of Boston were ready to avenge the ransacking and burning of an Ursuline convent by a Protestant mob. But on August 17 of that year, Bishop Benedict Fenwick preached a message of forgiveness in the cathedral and effectively stopped any retribution and bloodshed. Matthew's gospel today challenges us to forgive unconditionally. It is possible. Forgiveness works. We all have someone we could forgive today. It can make a real difference.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 3:7-10a, 11, 13-17; Matthew 18:21—19:1 (416) “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive?”

Friday, Aug 18, 2017 United in love

The church teaches that marriage is a sacrament for many reasons. A commitment this profound, which leads a couple to become “one flesh,” is deserving of as much blessing and public support as the church can offer. How can we be supportive of marriage? Make a small gesture today—a kind and supportive word, a phone call, a card or email—to express your support for a marriage. And pray for happy and holy marriages—for your own marriage, if you are married, and for those of friends and family.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 24:1-13; Matthew 19:3-12 (417) “The two shall become one flesh.”

Saturday, Aug 19, 2017 MEMORIAL OF JOHN EUDES, PRIEST All you need is love

From the beginning, John Eudes (1601-80) gave of himself. As a young priest he worked among plague victims, living alone so as not to risk infecting other members of his religious order. He became a famous preacher and confessor, and founded a community to help women who had entered prostitution. He also promoted devotion to the hearts of Jesus and Mary. Realizing the clergy needed reform as much as their flocks, he pledged another part of his life to the formation of seminaries. The call to loving service renews the church. Be part of this “reform movement”!

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 24:14-29; Matthew 19:13-15 (418) “Children were brought to Jesus that he might lay his hands on them and pray.”
